INFORMATION ON THE KENYA E-PASSPORT – ID CARD REQUIREMENT

The Department of Immigration in Kenya rolled out the issuance of the East Africa e-Passport with effect from 1st September 2017. All passport applicants must therefore apply for the ePassport on www.ecitizen.go.ke

Kenya National Identity Card (ID Card) Requirement

Sample picture of Kenyan ID card

Epassport applicants must be holders of a valid Kenyan National Identity Card, which will be required to register on the eCitizen platform and also for the passport application submission at the Embassy. Applicants who are over 18 and do not have an original Kenyan National Identity Card will not be able to apply for an ePassport at the Kenya Embassy in Berlin. Such applicants must first obtain a valid ID card before applying for a passport replacement on eCitizen.

The Kenya Embassy in Berlin DOES NOT issue ID cards.

There is currently no exception to this requirement.

This document has been made public on the Embassy website. It is therefore valid without a signature.
